

Friends of the Saratoga Libraries

December
2011

Please Join
The friends of the Saratoga Libraries
&
The Staff of the Saratoga Library for a Holiday Party
Tuesday, December 6
7 to 9 pm
Reading Room of the Saratoga Library
featuring:

The Redwood Middle School Rubato Choir will perform music from pop to traditional! "Rubato is a musical term meaning freely. We adopted this term to reflect our dedication to getting together and singing on our free time and to describe the style in which we strive to sing," says Jonathan Jow, Director of Music at Redwood who directs the choir. The choir participates in school concerts, local musical festivals, and travels to perform in Southern California every other year.

Please arrive promptly. The children in the choir need to perform close to 7; it is a school night.

Light hors d'oeuvres will be served from All of Us to You,
Happy Holidays

Members of the Saratoga Library Staff and Friends of the Saratoga Libraries join together to host the annual holiday party December 8. Pictured are members of the joint planning committee (front row) Leni Blanco, Helen Chang, Terrie Creamer, Anne Chiu, (back row) Pat Russell, Tom Ewan, Roslyn Donald, Arehna Singh, Peggy Baker, and Lisa Chang.
