Friends and NCL: A Lasting Partnership

The Friends of the Saratoga Libraries and National Charity League, Inc. (NCL) are celebrating 20 years of partnership. Mother-daughter pairs from NCL serve as dedicated volunteers at the Book-Go-Round, contributing over 1300 volunteer hours each year.

NCL members generously volunteer their time in support of two important Friends of the Libraries-related efforts. The Book-Go-Round, a beloved local bookstore run by the Friends of the Saratoga Libraries, offers a diverse collection of used books for readers of all ages. NCL volunteers play a crucial role in maintaining the bookstore, organizing shelves, assisting patrons, and ensuring a welcoming environment for book enthusiasts.

The Friends' quarterly paperback book sales provides another avenue for the NCL volunteers to engage with the community. These sales offer affordable reading options and contribute to the funding of library programs, resources, and events. NCL members actively participate in the setup, organization, and execution of these sales.

The longtime relationship between NCL and the Friends of the Saratoga Libraries not only fosters a

Membership Update

We are grateful to our members who have renewed their membership for the 2023–2024 year. Members of the Friends of the Saratoga Libraries enjoy the opportunity to volunteer with this wonderful organization in the community and at the Book-Go-Round.

If you haven't renewed your membership, or would like to join, you can do so online at fslonline.org or use the remittance envelopes located at the Book-Go-Round and the library. For the first time, we are offering Student memberships for $20. Also new this year, all memberships at the Sustaining level or higher ($250 or more) will receive a Friends tote bag.

If you have any questions, please email membership@fslonline.org or visit our website.

Children's Tree

Claire Campodonico is a longtime volunteer with the Friends of the Saratoga Libraries. She has also been involved with the Montalvo Service Group since 2014, and has chaired their Children's Tree Project since 2017.

For the 2023 Children's Tree Project (formerly the Teddy Bear Tree Project), Claire collected 300 donated stuffed animals, and after the Yuletide celebration at Villa Montalvo, she delivered the toys to Rebekah Children's Services in Gilroy.

This agency works with underserved children in Santa Clara, San Benito, and Monterey counties. Claire is already collecting stuffed animals for the 2024 Children's Tree, and would be delighted to take your donations.

sense of community but also highlights the importance of volunteerism in sustaining the Book-Go-Round's retail business. The NCL Saratoga-Los Gatos Chapter began working at the Book-Go-Round in 2003 and was later joined by a second local chapter, the Heritage Oaks Chapter. NCL mother-daughter pairs regularly work on Saturday and Sunday afternoons.

Kristin Gragnola, the Book-Go-Round Retail Manager, appreciates this "great partnership" and often calls on mother-daughter pairs to cover extra shifts. She is grateful for the consistent, reliable, and hard working NCL volunteers. During the pandemic, NCL volunteers kept the BGR open for business by covering all of the store shifts. Kristin said, "They kept us going during the pandemic. Their effort was huge."

NCL mothers report the benefits of volunteering with their daughters. Caroline Schuyler, past philanthropy liaison for the NCL Saratoga-Los Gatos Chapter, donated countless hours at the BGR working alongside her two daughters. Caroline recognizes the value of their time spent volunteering together. She said, "My daughter and I enjoyed working at BGR, not only because we could spend some time together, but because we love books and helping the customers with their purchases, including teachers who were buying books for their classroom. My daughter also loved giving suggestions to children and other teens, given that she is an avid reader."

National Charity League, Inc. is a philanthropic organization that fosters mother-daughter relationships through community service, leadership development, and cultural experiences. The Saratoga-Los Gatos and Heritage Oaks chapters each have nearly 300 mother and daughter members in grades 7-12. Outside of their significant contribution to the Friends of Saratoga Libraries, these members contributed more than 12,000 hands-on volunteer hours to more than 50 local and national philanthropy partners last year alone.

LUNAR NEW YEAR

A Greener Tomorrow Starts Today

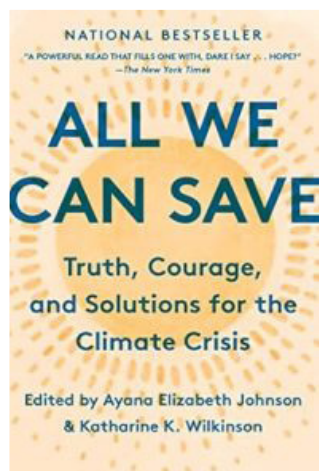

The 2024 theme for Silicon Valley Reads is “A Greener Tomorrow Starts Today,” with a goal of fostering collaboration and creating awareness around the importance of sustainability to ensure a thriving world for future generations. There are more than 100 free, public events for all ages which include author talks, book clubs, art/music events, community activities, arts and crafts, movies, and creative events or activities based on the theme each year.

This year there are seven recommended books that address this theme. There will be many in-person and virtual author talks. Check the SVR website for more details and to see a listing of all events. We look forward to seeing you at these great events!

2024 SILICON VALLEY READS BOOKS

All We Can Save
edited by Ayana Elizabeth Johnson & Katharine K. Wilkinson

All We Can Save showcases the wisdom and experiences of dozens of women actively contributing to environmental initiatives in the United States. These women are scientists, journalists, farmers, lawyers, teachers, activists, and innovators, who all come from different backgrounds. Their diverse perspectives offer a range of ideas and insights on how we can swiftly and significantly reshape society for a sustainable future.

There is a virtual event for All We Can Save on Sunday, February 11.

One Green Thing
by Heather White

Environmentalist Heather White offers an accessible guide to taking action for a more sustainable world. Through heart-warming and humorous anecdotes from her upbringing in East Tennessee to her experiences parenting in Montana, White demonstrates how people can contribute to the environmental movement. She encourages self-discovery, helping readers align their personalities, interests, and strengths with meaningful actions.

The Light Pirate
by Lily Brooks-Dalton

Set in a world where Florida faces the relentless onslaught of extreme weather and rising sea levels, The Light Pirate is the story of a small coastal town preparing for a powerful hurricane. Divided into four parts — power, water, light, and time — this novel mirrors the rhythms of the elements and the gradual transformation of the world as we know it. It serves as a contemplation of changes that challenge our comfort zones and a reminder of the untamed beauty and strength of nature.

There are many in-person author visits with Lily Brooks-Dalton including a February 1 visit at the Saratoga Library, plus a couple virtual book clubs.

CHILDREN'S COMPANION BOOKS

To Change a Planet
by Christina Soontornvat
(Pre K-1st)

To Change a Planet demonstrates the importance of caring for our planet. Eye popping explosions of color on every page create a stunning visual narrative. Meticulously researched and brimming with beauty, hope, and hands-on solutions that will edify and empower even the youngest readers, this loving ode to our planet is vital for every child and family.

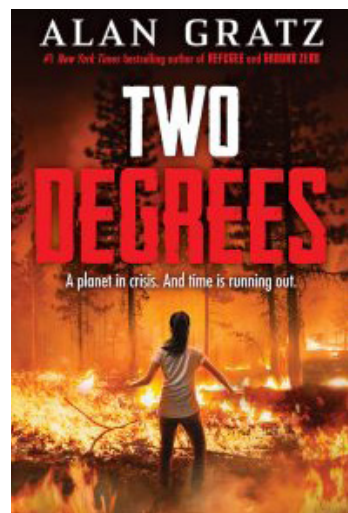

The Forest Man
by Anne Matheson (Grades 1-4)

After years of harsh monsoon seasons, a forest on the river island of Majuli is in danger of being slowly washed away. Jadav, a boy living on the island, is determined to save the forest he loves. This is the true story of how one young boy dedicated his life to creating and cultivating an expansive forest that continues to grow to this day. In a world impacted by climate change, Jadav Payeng's inspirational story shows how one person's contributions can make a difference in helping to save our environment.

Two Degrees
by Alan Gatz (Grades 4-8)

When three children endure separate climate change disasters – a wildfire in the California woods, a close encounter with a hungry polar bear in Canada, and a massive hurricane in Florida – they emerge from their experiences committed to changing the world.

Don't Call Me a Hurricane by Ellen Hagan (Teen/Young Adult)

Told in verse, seventeen-year-old Eliza, an environmental activist, is navigating the after-effects of a hurricane that devastated her coastal town while falling for Milo, a rich tourist who is at the center of a redevelopment that could put her community in danger – again.

There is a virtual author visit on March 20.
